

STS-8; August 30–September 5, 1983; GUION S. BLUFORD, JR. (U.S. Air Force – Colonel), MS-2.

It's not just at night time but the first time of its kind in Space Shuttle lift offs and African-American history with Col. "Guy" Bluford on the flight deck. In orbit, wired to monitors, he ran on a treadmill on the mid-deck.
